ROLY POLY

Orange has a great new sandwich shop on the Boston Post Road. I never profile a chain or franchise restaurant operation, but Roly Poly is innovative and stands out from the predictable sameness of mass operation stores. Roly Poly is a franchise that definitely rated a visit. Owners Barbara and Ed Winkler, longtime Milford residents, are a charming and ambitious couple. They always had their hand in the restaurant business whether it was cooking, bartending or waiting tables while maintaining jobs in the corporate world but always had a love for their customers and the community. Barbara and Ed visited a Roly Poly 3 years ago and fell in love with the concept and knew owning a franchise was their calling.

In 1996, the first Roly Poly Sandwich Shop opened for business in Atlanta, Georgia. Company founders Linda Wolf and Julie Reid had been rolling sandwiches in their shops in New Canaan, CT (1986) and in Key West, Florida (1996) before settling in Atlanta, Georgia to officially begin building their franchise system. Today, there are over 170 Roly Poly Sandwich Shops in 27 states.

We are very fortunate to have Roly Poly here in Orange as they offer something for everyone. All the sandwiches come in a form of wrap that offers over 50 varieties plus a build-your-own option where you pick the fillings. The wraps are available in half (6 inch) or whole (12 inch) and you can order them grilled or cold. For the health-conscious, there are veggie-only wraps and low carb options. Some of the most popular choices are Basil Cashew Chicken Wrap that offers fresh basil, chicken salad, cashews, spicy Thai sauce, green leaf lettuce, plum tomatoes, avocado, and alfalfa sprouts. Another favorite is the Monster Veggie (one the their many vegetarian wraps) featuring jack and Swiss cheese, green leaf lettuce, plum tomatoes, avocado, carrots, cucumber green pepper, mushrooms, baby spinach, alfalfa sprouts with a lite dill dressing. The wraps offer many choices featuring sliced chicken, turkey breast, roast beef, steak, ham, smoked pork, a wide variety of cheeses, vegetables, dressings, fruit & nuts.

The 7 signature salad choices range from Spa Salad with sliced chicken breast to Walnut Spinach Salad. Roly Roly also offers original recipe soups such as the very popular Baja Chicken Enchilada, Harvest Mushroom, Roasted Garlic Tomato, Garden Vegetarian, Old Fashioned Chicken Noodle, Broccoli & Cheddar (just to name a few). Side choices include potato or pasta salad, a variety of chips, and fresh baked cookies.

There is a reasonably priced children's menu available. Roly Poly also offers a great catering menu with delivery available. From casual gatherings, to a business meeting or working lunch, their focus is on timely service and special attention to detail. The freshness and quality of all the ingredients is very impressive. I would suggest picking up a menu ahead of time. As I mentioned before, there are over 50 choices of wraps so you definitely need time to make your choice. On my first visit I was holding up the line to place an order, as I couldn't decide, as everything looked so delicious!

Final note: Roly Poly offers great comfort food at reasonable prices with fresh, healthy choices for lunch, dinner or special events. I love a great sandwich and cup of soup! What a great alternative to the overrated fast food establishments. Stop in a meet Barbara & Ed as they have an exciting new addition to Orange!
